

Simmons Library Collections

The Simmons Library provides access to:

- Over 200,000 volumes in print and in excess of 40,000 electronic books.
- More than 30,000 journals, magazines and newspapers in print and online.
- Online databases currently numbering greater than 130.
- Over 4000 videotapes, DVDs, 16 mm films and laserdiscs
- A strong collection in support of teaching and learning across the curriculum:
 - Within Beatley Library, our collections are especially strong in Women's Studies, Children's Literature, Social Work, Health Studies, and Library and Information Science.
 - The School of Management (SOM) Library is a unique collection of information resources supporting the SOM's MBA program. Located at the SOM, 409 Commonwealth Ave., see <http://my.simmons.edu/library/collections/som/> for more details.
 - The Miller/Knopf Career Resource Library provides information for career planning, study abroad, internships, and graduate school. Located adjacent to the Career Education Center in One Palace Road, room 304E. Drop by or visit <http://my.simmons.edu/libraries/collections/career/> to learn more.
 - The Simmons College Archives, L220 on Level 2 of the new library, is the place to visit when you need to learn about the history of Simmons College. See http://my.simmons.edu/libraries/collections/college_archives to get more information.
- As a member of the Fenway Library Consortium, you have borrowing privileges at 14 member libraries in the Boston area. See <http://www.fenwaylibraries.org/>

Need something added to the collection? Just ask:

- If the materials you need are for reserves use in a course, see: <http://my.simmons.edu/libraries/services/reserves.shtml> for more information.
- Subject librarians are eager to receive your suggestions for the Library's collection. Contact your designated librarian directly (see below), or use our online request form (<http://my.simmons.edu/library/request.shtml>).
